Christopher Perretta Named Chief Information & Operations Officer for the Americas for MUFG Americas Holdings Corporation

NEW YORK, February 2, 2016 – MUFG, one of the world's leading financial groups, today announced that Christopher Perretta will join the company as Chief Information & Operations Officer for MUFG Americas Holdings Corporation and its U.S. banking subsidiary, MUFG Union Bank, N.A., effective April 1, 2016.

Perretta will also serve on the company's Executive Committee for the Americas as a policy making officer. He will be based in New York and report to President and Chief Executive Officer for MUFG Union Bank, N.A., Stephen Cummings.

Perretta most recently served as Global Head of Enterprise Data and Technology for State Street Corporation in Boston. There he led the company's overall technology strategy while aggregating State Street's data and insights for global clientele. Previously, he served as State Street's Chief Information Officer, responsible for all aspects of the company's information technology businesses and activities.

"Chris is a recognized technology and operations leader, and we are extremely pleased that he is joining us," said Cummings. "He brings a depth of experience managing multi-tiered technology and operations initiatives and a proven track record of high-level precision, planning and execution to IT projects that address some of the most complex challenges our industry faces today."

Among his many professional achievements, Perretta was instrumental in formulating a publicly announced, multi-year transformational program that delivered significant efficiencies and cost savings to State Street's IT and operations platforms via global service sourcing, Lean process design, and technology architecture initiatives.

Prior to joining State Street in 2007, Perretta served in key executive positions for General Electric Corporation, capped by his role as Chief Information Officer of GE Commercial Finance.
